

La Mama Mobile presents

LADIES OF THE BAY

Created by Girls Act Good

La Mama Mobile gives communities the opportunity to see live theatre without having to leave their towns, making theatre more accessible and spreading the arts experience outside of Metro Melbourne.

A funny, vivacious, new show inspired by real stories from Aussie summer days. Friends reminisce about the simpler times.

Nat, Tracy, Fiona and Naomi have grown up together in the Bay. They have gone through many life changes. But their enduring friendship carries on with their summer tradition - camping at the caravan park. Here, they gossip, tell it like it is and reveal secrets all over a cheeky glass at happy hour. But when tragedy strikes their town will these childhood friends be there for one another?

Ladies of the Bay will take you laughing and crying back to your own summers. Sometimes all we have are the memories.

“The performances so excellent as to make the naturalistic style of presentation seem so easy, familiar and very real.”
- Peter Green (Melbourne Observer)

Girls Act Good (GAG) is an all female collective of actors, writers, directors, producers, theatre makers and filmmakers based in Melbourne.

GAG as a company are dedicated to delivering stories that are true and connected to communities, with compassion, real research and tactful production elements. The topics, such as bush fire trauma, women’s relationships, family life and growing up as a woman in Australia, are all themes in Ladies of the Bay and are delivered with professionalism, empathy and artistic merit, bringing these conversations to light in communities through live theatre which is not only important but incredibly relevant right now.

Australia's home of independent theatre, La Mama continually seeks to explore beyond the mainstream and celebrate a diverse community of artists and audiences. Proudly representing La Mama, Girls Act Good focuses on giving a voice to people and their stories that normally go unheard and unnoticed.

“I am thrilled be to touring this show to smaller coastal towns, especially Warrnambool because that was where a bulk of my research and interviews came from to create the show. I know these women I met during my research are very excited that we are taking this show to Warrnambool so they can see a bit of themselves on the stage. They are lining up to get their tickets!” - Jennifer Monk

Performers: Lisa Dallinger, Kelley Kerr Young, Lee McClenaghan and Jennifer Monk
